Hoboken Historical Museum House Tour Showcases Design Creativity of Local Residents

Hoboken, NJ – October 23, 2007 – This year's Hoboken Historical Museum House Tour, on Sunday, Oct. 28, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., offers a peek inside a selection of stunning homes, including a jewel-box of a one-bedroom condo, a professional decorator's own custom-designed space in the newest waterfront condo building, and some amazing ideas for remodeling single-family row homes, using the latest materials and fabrics, as well as hand-painted decorative finishes and antiques. There's something for everyone's tastes in the nine homes and condos on the tour.

Visit the House Tour website for a sneak preview, by clicking the link below. For more information, visit www.hobokenmuseum.org, or call 201-656-2240.

Tour goers save time and money by buying a ticket voucher in advance for $25, at the Museum, or one of five other ticket sales locations. Tickets are also available in advance at either of the Sparrow's Wines and Liquors locations, Amanda's restaurant, Battaglia's Housewares, or Fleet Feet Sports. The Museum is open six days a week at 1301 Hudson St., in the Shipyard complex, from 2 – 9 p.m. on Tues. – Thurs., 1 – 5 p.m. on Fri. and noon – 5 p.m. on weekends.

On the day of the tour, tickets are $30, except for Museum members, who pay $25. Ticket vouchers will be exchanged for the House Tour booklet at the Museum on tour day, between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. The tour takes about two to two and a half hours to complete; doors close at 4 p.m. The tour is self-guided and homes may be visited in any order; a map will be included in the booklet. We thank PNC Bank and Paul Somerville Design for their generous support.
